WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional

WASHINGTON March 10 —In the House Hill introduced bills to abolish the franking privilege and repeal the income tax. Both bills were referred.

Among the nominations to day were Melville, Register of the Land Office at Stockton, Cal, and E Foregarden Receiver of Public Moneys at Marysville.

In the Senate Howe asked the unanimous consent of the Senate, which was given to suspend the 35th rule, so that he might present a list of the standing committees of the Senate. The names were read, when Sumner asked that his name should be struck from the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The request was opposed by Sherman, and the Senate, on a vote, complied.

Schurz moved that further action on the question of agreeing to the report of the committee be postponed.

A motion, of which Howe is the author, was brought before the Senate to remove Sumner from the Chairmanship of the Committee on Foreign Relations. After a spirited debate, which was of considerable duration, the resolution as presented by the committee, removing Sumner, was then carried—ayes 33, nays 9.

The Republican Senators, together with a committee from the House Republican caucus are in session this afternoon, and there is much dissension as to the necessity of passing some measure to protect Southern loyalists.

The Dry Bones of Democracy

WASHINGTON, March 11 —The Democrats and Conservatives of both Houses held a caucus of four hours' duration. Among other business was a resolution that it is essential to the interest of the people of the country that the Democrats and Conservatives in Congress be in constant attendance upon the sessions until the final adjournment, and that absentees be requested to return at once, so that the evil legislation contemplated may be avoided.

The New Loan.

WASHINGTON, March 10 —The Treasury Department will receive at once any five twenty bonds which the holder may desire to surrender in anticipation of the issue of the new bonds, and pay interest on the bonds surrendered to the 1st of May next, without rebate at which time the new bonds will begin to bear interest and will also issue new certificates which entitle the holder to receive the new bonds when they are ready for delivery. The five-twenties surrendered must be transmitted to the Treasury Department, and certificates guaranteed of the selling of the new bonds will then be issued. Registered bonds should be assigned to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sumner and the Foreign Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 11 —A special says information is received that the Administration has committed itself more than six weeks ago to Sir Edward Thornton, British Minister to bring about a change in the chairmanship of the Foreign Relations Committee. Nearly two months ago Thornton expressed to Secretary Fish doubts as to the Administration being able to get such a treaty as the High Commission might agree upon ratified by the Senate, so long as Sumner remained at the head of the Foreign Relations Committee, and it was therefore desirable that some other member should be placed in Sumner's place. The matter was informally discussed by Secretary Fish and the British Minister, and then taken before the President. After consultation with some friends of the Administration, both in and out of the Senate, a plan was agreed upon and the British Minister and British Commissioners were informed that their powerful and obnoxious opponent (Sumner) would be removed from the position of honor he had held so long and that by this act they would see that the Administration had abandoned the ground taken by him when he influenced the rejection of the Reverdy Johnson treaty.

EASTERN STATES.

The St. Louis Hurricane.

ST LOUIS, March 10.—Losses by the hurricane in St Louis are greatly exaggerated. The loss was about $400,000—two thirds of which was sustained by the railroads. About sixty dwellings were destroyed. Considerable damage is reported in the country.

New York Dispatches.

NEW YORK, March 10 —The French Relief Committee of the Chamber of Commerce reports receipts this morning as $118,350.

The Herald's Mexico special of March 3d says Manuel Asperos, Secretary of War, has been sent to San Francisco as Consul General, the affairs of the Pacific coast requiring a first-class man.

NEW YORK, March 11 —Later advices from Mexico are received. One million dollars in the secret expenses of the Government is accounted for as incurred in putting down the San Luis rebellion.

Manuel Asperos acting Secretary of State goes to San Francisco as Mexican Consul.

The Mexican Government promises to protect citizens of the United States in Tehauntepec who are treated with violence on account of their claims before the Mixed Commission.

The German Immigration Movement.

NEW YORK, March 11 —The Bremen and Hamburg Steamship Companies have both established lines for the transportation of immigrants direct to Aspinwall, there to connect with lines to San Francisco. The report that arrangements have been made to transport 50 000 Germans to Oregon proves rather more than a flying rumor, originating in this fact.

Troubles in South Carolina.

NEW YORK, March 10 —A dispatch from Columbia, South Carolina last evening, says a large body of armed men from East Tennessee and North Carolina has appeared in York and Chester counties. Fighting has been going on between them and colored militia for several days. Major Whitehead of the Eighteenth Infantry, stationed at Yorkville, this morning arrived here, and reports the most horrible outrages by the colored militia and the Kuklux. The negro militia were defeated on Monday and fled to the camp of Major Whitehead, who disarmed them. He reports to the Governor for orders, who will to day proclaim martial law in York and Chester counties. It has been telegraphed to the President and to General Terry at Louisville, asking troops. In the meantime Major Whitehead will send a regiment of militia under competent officers. Serious trouble is anticipated.

SAN DOMINGO

The Annexation Project.

NEW YORK, March 10 —A Herald's Havana special says affairs in San Domingo do not proceed well for the ultimate success of annexation. The populace on hearing that the Commissioners had sent a favorable report to the President, arose with cries of "No annexation!" and commenced setting fire to buildings threatening to burn the town. Lapison, a Dominican chief, has arrived at the northern part of the island, with some followers, and will act against Baez and the annexationists. The Haytiens although professing strict neutrality are secretly aiding the Dominicans in insurrection, and they have been warned against it by the United States officials.

SOUTH AMERICA

PANAMA, March 7 —News from Bogota, Colombia, of February 15th, say the revolution in the State of Boaca is not ended. Another battle has been fought on the boundary line between the provinces of Saota and Susecoa. The revolutionists were defeated and compelled to evacuate the capital. The legitimate Government bids fair to triumph. Regetero, Secretary of State, has charge of the government until Perez returns. Congress is in session. Murillo will probably be elected President. The remaining States of the Union are not likely to be disturbed by the troubles in Boaca.

Advices from Chile report that there was a fight between the troops and 500 Indians in which the latter were defeated. Melgarejo ex President barely escaped with his life the Indians pursuing him over the frontier into Peru. Of his escort of thirty six only five accompanied him to Lima, the rest having been slain. The Indians committed terrible atrocities after the battle of La Paz; many bodies were mutilated.

Morales in command of the revolutionists, resigned after the battle, but was subsequently proclaimed Provisional Governor of Bolivia.

Guerrilla warfare is kept up.

The new government of Bolivia has been established and has promised to maintain [illegible] with Peru.

NEVADA.

CARSON, March 11 —New and rich diggings have been discovered about thirty two miles in a southerly direction from here. So far, but one quartz ledge has been discovered in the immediate vicinity, and that crops out a height 30 feet above the ground, is traceable for more than half a mile and is upwards of 100 feet wide. An accurate average, made at the United States Branch Mint, in this city, shows the quartz to carry from $100 to $175 of silver to the ton.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Railway Disaster in France.

LONDON, March 11 —Eleven persons were killed by an accident at Puteaux, on the north western railroad in France.

Dispatches from Paris.

PARIS March 11 —The insurgent National Guards still hold possession of 417 cannon.

The reported death of Rochefort is contradicted.

The Luxon Liberale, of Versailles, has commenced inquiry into acts of violence and plunder perpetrated by the Germans during their occupation of the city. It is stated that requisitions and the destruction of property are continued by the Germans.

General Vinoy to day reviewed a corps of forty thousand men, from the Army of the Loire which form the new garrison of Paris.

A notice issued by direction of the Northwestern R R Co. says the Germans themselves are responsible for the railroad accident at Puteaux.

The rioters of the 10th of December have been tried by council of war. Blanqui, Floure[illegible] Gerard and Aveyle are condemned to death for conspiracy, Goupilts to two years' imprisonment and Vollas, six months. The rest were acquitted.

Financial Affairs.

OTTAWA, C W, March 11 —The Minister of Finance introduced the Budget in the House stating that Canada now stood eighth, instead of the eleventh as last year, on the list of countries trading with England, taking in proportion to population more goods from England than any other country in the world, and three times as much as America. Notwithstanding this prospect he warned members not to expect a large reduction of taxation. He counseled them to take off the five per cent duties imposed at the last session, but the duties on flour and coal must remain. He said he was not certain that negotiations were going on in Washington respecting the tariff but it was considered possible, therefore the Government desired to retain the duties on coal and flour.

The finest agricultural journal on the Pacific coast beyond all question, is the Pacific Rural Press of San Francisco. Part of its contents have somewhat too strong a flavor of California to please in Oregon,—as descriptions of particular localities in that State, accounts of local industries etc —but apart from these the paper has many features of very general interest and value. Its mechanical execution is a credit to the art of printing.

An Albany (N. Y.) man has been sent to prison for five months simply for "borrowing" an umbrella in some such weather as we have been having in Oregon during the past few weeks.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 13, 1871.

Confessions and Developments.

And we will now say, as we have already said, that that bill (the Portland Police bill) is totally wrong and rotten in principle.—Herald.

It is our recollection that the Herald never before stated its opposition to the bill in language bearing any resemblance to the directness and vigor of the above. In fact it did not condemn the bill at all till it had become a law, and then only mildly and by indirection. When this bill, which it now says is "totally wrong and rotten in principle," was first proposed, why did not the Herald take a position against it? The letter from one of the proprietors of the Herald to the editor of that paper furnishes the reason. "If we oppose it," says the writer of this letter, "we will be unable to get the litigant bill and the joint resolution authorizing the laws to be published in the Herald through the Senate." In other words the honest and independent "organ" refrained from condemning a measure which is "totally wrong and rotten in principle," in consideration of getting certain thieving measures of its own through the Legislature. This is the record as made up by the managers of the Herald themselves. They show to the world by their own written statements, over their own signatures, they can be induced to remain silent in regard to a measure which they believe is a great public wrong and full of [illegible] and rottenness, in order that they may be able to get through the Legislature certain schemes of their own to take money from the people and from the Treasury and put it in their pockets.

Let it be observed that this is the record of a paper which claims special merit as an "organ of the honest Democracy," for its known opposition to schemes and jobs of all descriptions which are intended to encroach on the rights of the people, or to take money from the Treasury in any way to subserve private and selfish ends. A paper that is willing to let a bill which it calls totally wrong and rotten in principle go through the Legislature in consideration of securing the passage of certain other measures designed to fill the pockets of its proprietors at the expense of the public and the Treasury, cannot preach very effectually hereafter on the subject of jobs and subsidies.

Another statement is made by the Herald in relation to the Police Bill which is extremely edifying. It will be remembered that the principal reason or excuse urged for the passage of the bill was that the old police were totally inefficient, that there was a perfect "reign of terror" here and that neither life nor property in Portland was secure. [illegible] now comes the Herald with a statement that "a man who figured most prominently in securing the passage of the bill (and afterward) that most of the statements as to the inefficiency of the old police were manufactured out of whole cloth, simply for the purpose of ousting Phil Saunders and putting J. H. Lappeus in.

Of course this was apparent all the time to everybody except common idiots or the blindest partisans. Its statement through the Herald is however of some value as a confession of the dishonesty of [illegible] pretenses. But we venture that most of the stories as to the inefficiency of the old police that were manufactured out of whole cloth" were manufactured by the Herald. Its columns from day to day, while the bill was pending, teemed with these stories. Its writers were unusually industrious and enterprising in manufacturing them. Every day it sent to the Capital a whole batch of them. It declared that under the old police system crime was rampant in Portland and allowed to go unpunished; that thieves and robbers and murderers were pursuing their trades at their own sweet will in this city and vicinity, and that there was a feeling of insecurity among citizens which was little short of a panic. The rural Democrats in the Legislature drank it [illegible] and became clamorous for the Police Bill. The rural Democratic press copied them, and declared that something ought to be done to rescue Portland from the domination of the thieves and robbers. So the Police Bill was put through, and a measure which the Herald now boldly says is "totally wrong and rotten in principle," was consummated. It was consummated because one of the proprietors of that paper instructed the editor not to oppose it lest their own schemes of plunder should be defeated, and because it manufactured out of whole cloth the statements as to the inefficiency of the old police and the consequent prevalence of crime in Portland.

Thus at every step the [illegible] condemns itself. It is proving its own venality and falseness in a most signal manner. The crooked and corrupt courses of the last Legislature, and of the parties who managed it, are being rapidly discovered to the country, and the dark mines of jobbery and corruption in which there were so many workers, are being opened to the light.

The German Immigration Movement.

By the dispatches which we publish to-day it will be seen that steamship lines have already been established between German ports and Aspinwall for the direct transportation of emigrants. This substantially verifies the statements already published here in regard to the bringing of large numbers of people from Germany to Oregon. It looks as if this magnificent enterprise was to be inaugurated at once. The statement is made in the dispatch that the first steamer from Bremen leaves soon. Of course arrangements will be completed whereby steamers on this side will meet these passengers at Panama, without delay and convey them to their destination. A similar enterprise of such magnitude has, we believe, never been before attempted. Its vast importance to our State, the extent and greatness of its enduring and ever growing results, who can adequately appreciate? The Farmer, in an article on the subject, says:

> Fifty thousand Germans in Oregon! What a [illegible] onslaught there will be on oak grubs to clear a way for the plow, and what an increase there will be in wheat and oat fields and gardens along the line of the Oregon and California Railroad! The trains that now go down empty, will go empty no more; and the far-seeing projector of this enterprise will reap a rich harvest for his liberality. Mr. Holladay's interests are identified with those of Oregon, and he is doing more than any person to develop her resources. Instead of abuse he deserves the good wishes of every citizen in the State.

Taken in connection with the great industrial enterprises now to be pushed forward here, this immigration project possesses a still larger significance. So great an addition to the productive labor of Oregon as this immigration will bring, coupled with the vast increase of activity that will be caused at once by the rapid construction of our several railways, will produce results that will astonish even the most sanguine among us. Mr. Holladay is now here to superintend the various enterprises which he has inaugurated, and from his known energy in "pushing things" it may be taken for granted that there will be no delay nor feebleness in carrying forward these undertakings.

The question at issue as regards the Alabama claims involves the recompense to our own people of the value of their property destroyed, not only by the Alabama, but by all the other rebel cruisers that were sent out from British ports. These piratical crafts destroyed 284 ships, as follows:

By the Alabama	69	By the St. Nicholas	3
By the Shenandoah	38	By the Calhoun	3
By the Florida	38	By the Nashville	2
By the Sumter	27	By the Boston	2
By the Tallahassee	27	By the Savannah	1
By the Saxony	15	By the Lapwing	1
By the Clarence	3	By the Echo	2
By the Sallie	2	By the York	1
By the Georgia	10	By the Conrad	1
By the Jeff Davis	5	By the Tuscarora	1
By the Winslow	5	Miscellaneous	16
By the Chickamauga	4
By the Olustee	4	Total	284
By the Retribution	3

The President of the Willamette Falls Canal and Lock Company has written a note to Mr. Pennoyer, editor of the Herald, in which he says the statement written to Jacksonville from this place, that he (Mr. Pennoyer) received $500 for supporting the subsidy bill of that company is not true. Inasmuch as we copied the statement referred to we feel bound to give a place to this denial also. But we remark that the writer of the letter did not charge that it was Mr. Pennoyer who received the money.

The Yamhill paper, in its last issue, expresses a fear lest the opinion of the Attorney General may cause another balk in the construction of the west side road. It need have no fear of the kind. The west side railroad will be built,—twenty miles of it this year. People of the west side counties may make up their minds that they are going to have a railroad. Room for the locomotive and the German immigration!

From the drift of discussion in the Republican papers of California it would appear that Mayor Selby of San Francisco and Newton Booth of Sacramento are the two men between whom the choice will lie in the Republican Convention, as the candidate for Governor of that State. Both are very strong, and it is believed either could be elected.

Senator Sumner is removed from the head of the Committee on Foreign Affairs by an emphatic majority of the Senate. This is well. He has become morose and dictatorial beyond endurance. It would have been disgraceful had his malignant and groundless attack on the President been allowed to pass without this rebuke.

Judge Boise on State Warrants.

LAFAYETTE, Ogn., March 9, 1871.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I have read with interest the opinion of Judge Boise on State warrants, and also the comments of the press on that decision. The Judge takes the position that no warrant can be lawfully drawn in the absence of appropriation, and that in case warrants are so drawn they are absolutely void and can be paid only by the grace of the Legislature.

Much has been said, pro and con, on this subject, and I have only a single remark to offer, viz:

It is to my mind a little singular that a Judge should, for the space of two years, go to the Secretary of State and get warrants for the payment of his salary, which warrants he well knew were drawn unlawfully and were totally void, that he should take these warrants, issued as he well knew in violation of the Constitution and the laws and worthless in point of legality, that he should sell the same to his banker or broker at par, and put the money in his pocket; and that he should afterwards deliver a solemn judicial opinion to the effect that the issuance of the warrants was unlawful and that the broker or banker to whom he had sold them has no right to collect the same which a court would enforce. In what light will the broker, who will be apt to regard himself as being victimized by the Judge, view the matter? A man who was indignant, or not circumspect in his speech, might call it a swindle.

LEGIS.

THE NEVADA LEGISLATURE.—The Virginia Enterprise of March 4th thus notices the close of the last session of the Legislature of Nevada:

> As we write (12 o'clock midnight) the fifth session of the Nevada Legislature is probably in the act of adjournment. We think we express the sentiment of the people of Nevada in invoking a blessing upon that provision of the Constitution which confines the sessions of our Legislatures to sixty days. Had sixty days more time been vouchsafed the Legislature just adjourned, not a dollar would have been left in the State Treasury, and it is doubtful whether a dollar could have been borrowed by the impoverished commonwealth. Altogether, the body was the most corrupt ever convened at Carson. Both branches embraced a few good men, but we think we are safe in the assertion that a majority of the members of the fifth session of the Nevada Legislature have proven themselves to be as graceless a set of scoundrels as ever sold their votes to the highest bidder in a deliberative body. It is unpleasant to speak in this manner of the gentlemen who, for the past sixty days, have represented the legislative sovereignty of the State; but by putting no other estimate upon their official conduct can we account for their action upon many measures vitally affecting the interests of the State. We need not refer to these measures now; but we have good reason to believe that money was effectively used from the first day of the session to the last in corruptly controlling the votes of members in both branches of the Legislature. We know more of the action of these miscreants than they imagine, and shall find early occasion to acquaint the public with the names of their perjured representatives and the prices paid for their votes on certain important bills.

Speaking of the recent decision against the Foreign Miners' License Tax in California, the Alta says: "No plainer infraction of the Federal Constitution could be found; spirit and letter were dead against the tax; no hair-splitting, no matter how dexterously performed, could weaken that fact; yet Democratic officers in every part of the State refused to obey. They took their stand on the State law imposing the tax. Here is warrant for the collection of four dollars a month from every Chinaman who engages in the business of turning over abandoned claims, and beyond that they declined to work. If there were any provision of a higher law forbidding the exaction, that was no concern of theirs. Democracy never fixes its eye steadily on the Constitution except when it thinks the Constitution is on its side, but Democracy will have to pay attention to it now in this particular, or go to jail.

If North Carolina politics can be judged by the spirit of its newspapers, an amicable sentiment is not prevalent. For instance a Wilmington paper, anticipating the elevation of the President of the State Senate to the gubernatorial office, says "that he will make such a Governor as North Carolina knew before the North belched forth its scum to fatten upon the South, and before the dregs of the Southern people rose to the surface to meet them."

Rural visitors to New Orleans complain of swindles practiced upon them by knaves, who persuade them to contribute to the Lee Monumental Fund, after introducing them to a bogus Gen. J. B. Hood.

OREGON.

Rev. Neill Johnson, of McMinnville, is seriously ill.

The steamboat Shoo Fly broke her shaft a few miles above Corvallis, on Friday last.

David Roland, an old citizen of Oregon, died at his home near Jefferson, last week. He was 70 years of age.

From the Farmer: We learned through a letter from Major Magone last evening, that C. E Dubois, of Portland, will offer a special premium of a $74 set of furs for articles in the ladies' department at the next State Fair. We hope to be able to give particulars in our next issue.

From the Mountaineer: We learn that some of the Idaho merchants intend buying their goods again at Portland and shipping by the Columbia river route. This is as it should be, and we are glad that they are able to make such arrangements with the O. S. N. Co. as to enable them to compete with those who get their goods by way of the Pacific railroad.

B. D. Butler, Esq., of the Dalles, has purchased a band of thirty-one Cashmere and Angora goats, which he expects will arrive by the next steamer from California. They will cost him about $1,000 delivered in the Dalles. This is a new enterprise for this section of the country, and Mr. Butler deserves great credit for being the first one to engage in it.

A correspondent of the Register, at Peoria, states that a young lady of that place had gone a short distance from her father's house, with a light in her hand, the other evening, when a bear attacked her. She kept the monster back by flaring the light in his face, and retreated in the best order possible, until several children came to her relief with such a clamor that they frightened the bear off.

THE TERRITORIES.

The boundaries of Idaho and Utah Territories are to be surveyed. Congress has appropriated $12,000 for the work.

It is lamented that northern Indian women visit the Sound regions every year and carry off many thousands of dollars. Carrying the money out of the country, we fear, is not the most lamentable part of the matter.

It is reported that the people of Washington Territory east of the Cascade mountains want the Capital of the Territory removed from Olympia to some point on the Columbia river. This matter was agitated some time ago, but is now being revived. Kalama is a candidate for the honors, and may succeed. It is probable the N. P. R. R. Co. would donate ground enough for public buildings and parks.

It is stated that settlers in the Yakima country are in fear of an outbreak of the Indian tribes, as between seven and eight hundred Indians, considered dissatisfied, have gathered together at Priest Rapids and are supposed to threaten the settlements. They have already killed one Indian who was known to be friendly to the whites, and killed some stock. People are procuring arms and ammunition.

"Sheet and pillow case parties" are "the go" in Montana. Following is a description of them: The uniform for the ladies consisted of a pair of white stockings drawn over their shoes, a night gown over their dresses, a white sheet throw over their shoulders, shawl fashion, white gloves on their hands, a white handkerchief tied toothache fashion round their heads, a pink mask over the face, and a pillow case tied over their heads, in the same manner that housewives tie handkerchiefs over their top pieces while sweeping a dusty room. The costume of the gentlemen was similar to the above, with the exception of white shirts instead of nightgowns, and the addition, in some instances, of pantalettes drawn over their pantaloons.

CURRENT NOTES.

At New York on the 1st inst. eighteen proposals for bonds were received, amounting to about $4,804,600, the bids varying from 109 92 to 110 91. The awards were $2,000,000, at from 109.92 to 109 98.

The public debt statement for last month was telegraphed here in full. We ascertain, however, from a California paper, that the decrease during that month amounted to the very handsome sum of $7,317,960.

Jim Fisk was arrested in Boston a few days ago at the instance of Gorham Gray, a cotton broker, who alleges that he had dealings with Fisk, in cotton, in 1866, and that the latter did not fulfill his agreement. Fisk will give bail in the sum of $20,000.

A suit has been commenced against the sureties of ex-Collector Morgan L. Harris, of the Eighth District of New York city, for the amount of his bond, $200,000, the Government having lost nearly $250,000 through his acceptance of worthless bonds from whisky dealers. Messrs. Augustus Schell and Chas. Devlin are among his bondsmen.

Stetson's sons, proprietors of the Astor House in New York, have failed. Their creditors have agreed to accept their proposal to pay 20 per cent of their indebtedness—five per cent. at the close of each year for four years. The liabilities amount to nearly $200,000, and it is estimated that the house cannot earn more than $25,000 per year.

Six immense steamers are now being constructed in England, to constitute a new line between New York and Liverpool. The pioneer, the Oceanic, is nearly finished. She is 410 feet long, built mainly of iron, with engines of 3,000 horse power, and a carrying capacity of 6,000 tons. Her screw is four bladed, made of steel. She is built to carry 200 cabin and 1,000 steerage passengers.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Newton Booth, of Sacramento, writes that he will accept the Republican nomination for Governor of California.

Oakland (Cal.) which went Democratic in the last election, has just been carried by the Republicans by a sweeping majority.

The Senate last session failed to concur in the action of the House to insure the better execution of the laws in Utah and to enforce the polygamy bill.

An Indiana Democrat announces that W. H. Holman is to be the next Democratic candidate for Governor of that State, while Hendricks will have the entire Indiana delegation in his favor for President, in the next Democratic National Convention.

The Republican members of the Indiana Legislature have resigned some days ago in a body. The reason assigned for this course is the attempt of the Democratic majority to pass a bill redistricting the State, in violation of the Constitution, which provides that the State shall not be redistricted oftener than once in six years. The last redistricting was four years ago. It is stated that the designs of the Democrats leaked out in consequence of a feud between the Hendricks Democrats and the Pendletonians. One branch endeavoring to overreach the other, and both sought protection from the Republicans.

CURIOSITIES OF THE DRAFT.—Senator Wilson of Massachusetts, in his speech at Portland a few years ago, admitted that he had been justly called the "Father of the Conscription," and ranked it as one of the proudest honors of his life.

To raise 300,000 men 400,000 were conscripted, and of these not more than 60,000 actually entered the service either by person or substitute. From Massachusetts 32,079 were drafted, 22,243 were exempted, 3,046 failed to report, and only 6,690 were held to service. Of these only 743 ever served personally, 2,335 furnished substitutes, and 3,622 paid commutation.

From New York 49,732 were drafted, 3,210 served, and 31,577 furnished substitutes.

In the construction of the conscription law it is a remarkable fact that not a Senator or a member of Congress who voted for it ever gave an opinion that would take a drafted man into the army. In all their letters that ever saw the light they, to a man, advocated such a construction that would afford grounds for escape to their constituents. The riot in New York resulted from the draft, and made necessary the sending from Meade's army so large a force as to release from Lee such reinforcements to the aid of Bragg in Georgia as to lose to the Army of the Cumberland, under Rosecrans, the battle of Chickamauga, September 20, 1863. In the light of these facts, the doubt so often expressed as to the wisdom of the conscription may now be solved.—Townsend's Historical Record and Encyclopædia.

RELIGIOUS AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION. The Congregationalist says it does "not remember to have seen a single hearty advocacy" of the proposed religious amendment to the Constitution "in any journal of influence," and it quotes from the Presbyterian this commentary upon the Philadelphia Convention: "We do not think that the Convention can be deemed successful. It was marked in its latter sessions by a good deal of disorder, and the discussions at times sadly lacked dignity. But it was manifest that there was a great diversity of sentiment in the Convention as to the precise thing which they wanted inserted in the Constitution. * * * These differences in sentiment made themselves very apparent in the Convention, and certainly hindered it from making the impression on the community which it might otherwise have made." It is manifest that the judgment of the leading Orthodox Protestant denominations is fixed in opposition to the movement as at least inexpedient, if not wrong in principle.

TWO LECTURES

ON

Geology of the Great Basin of the Interior of Oregon.

BY

REV. THOMAS CONDON,

AT

PHILHARMONIC HALL,

TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY EVEN'GS, March 14th and 22d,

At 7:30 o'clock.

Tickets, $1 00; single admission, 50 cents.

AT THE REQUEST OF SEVERAL GENTLEMEN prominently connected with the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, together with many citizens of Portland, the Rev. Thomas Condon has consented to give TWO LECTURES as above indicated.

Mr Condon has devoted much of his time and talent in reading up the buried history of Eastern Oregon. So far as the interesting science of Geology (of which he is an enthusiastic student) could aid him, he has done more for Oregon, Geologically, than all others, and to show appreciation for past services as well as to aid him in prosecuting further search, the net proceeds of these Lectures will be for Mr. C.'s sole benefit. Therefore show your appreciation of honest worth and fill the house to overflowing

Tickets can be had at the bookstores of S. J. McCormick and Harris & Holman, and at the office of Oregon Steam Navigation Co.

CITY.

A DISTINGUISHED DIVINE AMONG US —We find in the Sunday morning papers the following communication from Dr James Dickson

The Trustees of the Taylor Street Church deserve great credit for securing the services of one of the most distinguished orators and theologians of the day—Rev W M Punchon, A M, who will deliver a lecture in this city, on some literary subject about the last of this month In the large [illegible] no room has been found sufficiently capacious to accommodate the public He recently [illegible] $50 000 for twelve lectures He has been [illegible] before the public, in the Old and [illegible] World for many years, and still there is no [illegible] in the lustre of his rare and uncommon [illegible] which continue to shine with undecaying [illegible] and increased radiance

[illegible] he is one of the most profound, impressive and eloquent of living men His person is impressive and imposing—above the medium height, well formed frame, broad and ample [illegible] fresh complexion, entire feudom from affectation and art, amiable manners, yet dignified and majestic In illustration and metaphor he is [illegible] and signally felicitous His compositions are carefully elaborated and highly finished by bold, clear, comprehensive and [illegible] language His platform and pulpit [illegible] abound with rich imagery, profusion of [illegible] redundancy of matter, as though he [illegible] but one-half of his intellectual strength, and felicity of expression, displaying various knowledge His fancy is luxuriant, gleaming with an elegance of polish fragrant with ten [illegible] rich in "colors dipt in heaven," so [illegible] few if any, can listen and withstand the [illegible] and magic of his eloquence without a [illegible] and overshadowing sense of the amazing force and fire of his creative mind—except [illegible] all pretensions to good taste and [illegible] He is a master of language and possesses the very highest elemental power of oratory [illegible] will be a luxury and privilege to hear [illegible]

HIGH WATER—THE WHARVES ABOUT TO BE SUBMERGED —The Wallamet had been for several days slowly rising, but yesterday afternoon the stage of water began to look threatening. The lower wharves at dark were but a few inches above water, and the river was rising at the rate of two or three inches in an hour There was news, too, of very high water at [illegible] and of a continued rapid rise. Under these circumstances it was thought best to clear all the lower floors of their stores of freight. The [illegible] at the P T Co's wharf was about as active as ordinary week days, there being considerable freight to move. The steamers of the O S N Co had to be hauled in below their dock on account of the heavy drift running, and the ferry boat had to do some dexterous dodging to keep clear of the heavy rafts of flood wood at dark it was thought that by this morning all the lower floors of the wharves would be submerged. During the day great numbers of saw logs went by and there were other kinds of drift which indicated considerable damage to property along the upper river.

THE POETRY OF THE THING DAMAGED —A friend who has excellent facilities for being posted in Siwash literature writes us, among other things, about the pronunciation of the word Kalama. As to the pronunciation he says the Indians who used to hunt and fish in that region, give the a in the first syllable the long sound, and in the second and third the same as in far. Somebody, with the peculiar gift of seeing poetry in [illegible] has defined the word to signify "The [illegible] maiden" Our friend says he has questioned quite a number of the most intelligent Siwashes on the reservation where the Columbia river Indians are questioned as to the correctness of that definition and they invariably returned an answer [illegible] — no that way," and they say the stream Kalama, takes its name from a peculiar sort of stone found in that neighborhood from which the Indian pipes were made, and that in their dialect the word Kalama signifies "pipe." And thus the poetry of Kalama, the beautiful maiden " vanishes in smoke

A SMART INSURANCE AGENT —We hear of an agent of a fire insurance company located not a thousand miles from here who had been instructed that when effecting insurances upon milling and manufacturing establishments he must divide the policies, taking a part on the building, part on the machinery etc. His first effort as agent was in getting up policies on a saw mill for two [illegible] dollars Remembering his instructions to divide he proceeded to insure the building for one thousand and the water wheel (several feet under water) for one thousand The latter policy is considered a dead sure thing in favor of the company and the agent is voted a smart one

LECTURE ON GEOLOGY —At the request of gentlemen who have specially interested themselves in [illegible] Mr Condon to lecture here on the geology of Eastern Oregon, we call attention again to the fact that his first lecture will be delivered to-morrow evening at Philharmonic Hall. Mr Condon's past valuable contribution to geological science have done much to attract attention of men of learning to our State. The gentlemen who have invited him desire to enable him to pursue his researches in the interior, and to this end it is hoped there will be a general attendance.

SONS OF ST PATRICK —A number of the sons of St Patrick propose to hold communion together at a banquet to be given at the St. Charles Hotel on the evening of the 17th inst. We understand that a considerable number of guests have been invited and that such arrangements are in progress as will undoubtedly render the gathering peculiarly interesting and pleasant

A [illegible] CONCERT IN PROSPECT —We are authorized to state that the gentlemen and ladies who gave the recent concert in the Baptist Church, will give another at Philharmonic Hall, on the evening of Tuesday, March 21st They will be assisted by several new voices, both male and female. The programme will appear in a few days.

HELD TO ANSWER —Isaiah Graham (colored) whose [illegible] nation on the charge of seduction, occupied the greater part of the Police Court session of Friday and Saturday, was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court, and his bail was fixed at $500

AT OAK POINT —The steamer Dixie Thompson on Saturday towed the bark Almatia from Astoria to Oak Point, where the latter vessel has about a hundred tons of freight to discharge. She will probably get up here to-morrow night

FLOUR FOR SOUTH AMERICA —The Herald says Hans Teafe, the Danish Consul at San Francisco has ordered another cargo of flour, which is destined for South America, from the Salem flour mills.

FUNERAL.—The funeral services of Mr. John Phillippi were attended yesterday by a large concourse of people—Firemen, Odd Fellows and friends of the deceased.

AMUSEMENTS.

OREGON MUSICAL INSTITUTE—FIRST CONCERT The first concert by the teachers and pupils of the Oregon Musical Institute took place on Saturday evening at Philharmonic Hall The house was literally crowded in every part. The pupils were seated in rising tiers of seats upon the stage, the central figure being Miss Carrie Knox, representing the Goddess of Liberty In front and on the right and left were two little girls—daughters of Mr T J Carter—one holding a cross adorned with a floral wreath, the other an anchor The little girls were mostly dressed in white, with colored scarfs and all wore golden crowns The effect of this arrangement together with the fanciful decorations of the room, was beautiful and pleasing The pupils, many of them very young for such performances, sang with creditable correctness and with such confidence as could hardly have been expected Quite a number of them were heartily encored Among the more notable performances by pupils we may mention the "Song of the Bells," by Miss Tucker who displayed a rich musical voice, the ballad with a [illegible] The Little Church Round the Corner" sung very sweetly by Miss Lizzie Anderson, the "Little Street Sweeper," given with fine dramatic effect by little Allie Middleton There were other performances little less meritorious while all were indeed creditable It is the intention as we understand, to repeat these concerts at intervals of one or two months

ORO FINO THEATER —Mrs. Bates made her last appearance for the present, at Oro Fino, on Saturday evening To night the Pixley sisters will appear for an engagement of indefinite length The drama of Don Cesar de Bazan will be presented to-night, the entertainment to close with character songs by the Pixley Sisters.

Exuberant Health

Is a blessing vouchsafed to few Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precaution necessary to preserve these precious endowments Indeed as a rule the more healthy a man is the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life and exemptions from disease and pain than the most athletic of their fellows who are foolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable and act accordingly

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds which the fast life of this restless age occasions In fact a pure wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions and they have the article in Hostetter s Stomach Bitters It is a staminal medicine i e it imparts permanent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased Competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum and as far as the public is concerned ad nauseum in the hope of rivaling it but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left in the rear It has been the great medical success of the present century and it is quite certain that no proprietary medicine in this country is so widely known or as generally used

Ten lightning presses running incessantly (Sunday excepted) the whole year through barely supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanac in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth the circulation now being over eight millions a year

Protect the Right of Suffrage

[From the N Y Tribune]

Republican liberty can only be maintained so long as elections are decided by legal voters each voting once at each election Let it be understood that the votes of aliens, minors repeaters, &c, are to stuff the ballot boxes, and there is no more vitality or value in voting, and few will consent to dignify the farce by offering votes to all He who seeks a triumph through the polling of illegal votes may call himself Democrat, Republican, or whatever he will, he is in fact a hypocrite a villain, and a deadly foe to government by the people Of all despotisms, a government by illegal or miscounted votes is the most [illegible]ecrable.

The act passed by this Congress at its [illegible]mer session did great good We cannot [illegible] it prevented the polling of at least [illegible] thousand fraudulent votes by repeaters [illegible] ons in this city alone It was an ex[illegible] [illegible]nt, and a trial has proved that it needs [illegible] [illegible]ment to render it thoroughly efficient [illegible] [illegible]ouse has framed and enacted such [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]ations as experience has suggested [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]ed the concurrence of the Senate, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]rray that it be not withheld [illegible] [illegible] act of last session has been denounced, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]ized, execrated, by the Democratic [illegible] [illegible] Congress, and the journals They [illegible] [illegible] have it, for it curtails their facilities [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]ng But do our questions—"What [illegible] [illegible] legal voter did this act disfranchise or [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] his suffrage? What single legal [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] its acts deterred from voting? [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] legal voter was subjected by this [illegible] [illegible] of even ten minutes, whether in [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] voting?"—the answer is a dead [illegible] [illegible] they can rail at the act as usurping [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] cal they can prate of bayonets [illegible] [illegible] ballots, but when we say to them, [illegible] [illegible] specify one legal voter—barely one—[illegible] [illegible] prevented from voting, or impelled [illegible] [illegible]ote otherwise than as he wished to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]oted in fear of any bayonet or [illegible] [illegible]arshal —they confess the falso-[illegible] [illegible] railing accusations by declining [illegible] [illegible]

Thousands of legal voters in this State habitually shun the polls They refuse to vote because they apprehend that illegal voting and dishonest counting will render their votes [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] We do not say that their [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] only know that it [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] need to be reassured [illegible] [illegible] Our State gave 419,883 [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] electors in 1868, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] majority of all the legal [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] election—a larger vote by [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] opponents ever did or [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] than thirty three electoral [illegible] were [illegible] [illegible] sale, systematic fraud, [illegible] over [illegible] [illegible] and Blair We ask [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] ress that it protect us against a repetit[illegible]n of that villainy Unless [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] ance, call out the four hundred [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and Republican votes that [illegible] State will have to poll in 1872 And, while [illegible] [illegible] possible again to carry the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] vote of New York, it is ever so much easier and safer to do it with her [illegible] [illegible]

Public Good—Private Gain.

[illegible] [illegible] Y Tribune]

[illegible] that the [illegible] [illegible] incapable of holding at once two ideas [illegible] a melancholy truth, but [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] possessors capable of instructing mankind [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]ical economy?

For [illegible] are the [illegible] [illegible]nents of protection to home industry have [illegible] vehemently asserting that our present tariff secures inordinate profits to the makers of iron and wares, fab rics and implements in this country

To which we respond primarily, "If such is the fact, those industries are as free to you as to any If [illegible] be $5 per ton profit on melting iron why under the sun don't you melt [illegible] What hinders? You have capital [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]ns of acres of ore, coal, and [illegible] why [illegible] smelt them into pig iron? As [illegible] Yankee inquired respecting Niagara—[illegible] [illegible] hender?" Can any one conjure up a reason why our Free-Traders don't make iron [illegible] and wares, if there be more profit [illegible] these pursuits than in others?

[illegible] [illegible] example are Messrs C Vanderbilt and [illegible] Stewart—men of vast business [illegible] [illegible] ample wealth Let either of them [illegible] want to embark in iron making [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] 10 000 000, and solicit subscriptions [illegible] [illegible] 000,000 from others, so that the [illegible] may be done on the largest scale and [illegible] [illegible] greatest possible economy ' who [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] now that the sum would be eagerly [illegible] [illegible] the strength of the public confidence in the proposer's sagacity and ability?

[illegible] [illegible] choose to invest their means in [illegible] undertakings is none of our business, [illegible] one knows that we speak truth [illegible] [illegible] say that they so invest their money [illegible] [illegible] they believe it will pay them better [illegible] [illegible] making And they know [illegible] [illegible] want to induce men to make iron [illegible] and wares, in this country to the ex[illegible] [illegible] the home demand for them To this [illegible] [illegible] stand by protection, as affording inducements to such investment which would [illegible] [illegible] under Free Trade

— Then your object is to enrich those [illegible] no embark in these pursuits?'

—No Sir not at all! Our object is totally different—to develop all the resources and capacities of our country—to diversify employments, and call forth abilities and energies which would otherwise lie dormant We desire more skill more invention more production, But, though others may expect Messrs Vanderbilt, Stewart and their class to invest millions in iron making with no hope of profit, but under the influence of patriotic impulses solely, we are not sure that such motives would prove controlling Hence, we endeavor to render it probable that they could make money by such investment That is no part of our object, it may very reasonably and properly be theirs

We insist, therefore that Washington Hamilton, Jefferson, Madison, and their compeers, who laid the foundations of our protective policy, were impelled by the highest and purest motives They sought 'the greatest good of the greatest number,' and they believed the way to that end lay through protection That they were emphatically right we have not a shadow of doubt, others think differently, and have a perfect right to their opinion But he who charges that it was their intention to enrich by protection the few at the expense of the many, is a wanton libeler He cannot know that their purpose was thus sordid and despicable, and all who revere their memory know that it was not—could not have been You might as well charge that Washington hung Andre under the influence of jealousy and envy of the Major's military fame

[From the N. Y Tribune]

Republican liberty can only be maintained so long as elections are decided by legal voters each voting once at each election Let it b[e] understood that the votes of aliens, minors, repeaters, &c, are to stuff the ballot-boxes, and there is no more vitality or value in voting and few will consent to dignify the farce by offering votes to all He who seeks a triumph through the polling of illegal votes may call himself Democrat, Republican, or whatever he will he is in fact a hypocrite, a villain, and a deadly foe to government by the people Of all despotisms a government by illegal or miscounted votes is the most execrable

The act passed by this Congress at its [illegible] session did great good We cannot [illegible] prevented the [illegible] of at least [illegible] thousand fraudulent votes by repeaters [illegible] in this city [illegible] was an ex[illegible] and a trial has proved that it needs [illegible] to render it thoroughly efficient [illegible] has framed and enacted such [illegible] as experience has suggested [illegible] the concurrence of the Senate, [illegible] is not be withheld [illegible] session has been denounced, [illegible] cerated, by the Democratic [illegible], and the journals They [illegible] to our questions—"What single legal [illegible] this act disfranchise or [illegible] of his suffrage What single legal [illegible] deterred from voting? Public Good Private Gain

[illegible] Tribune]

That the [illegible] is incapable of holding at once two ideas [illegible] melancholy truth, but are there [illegible] capable of misstating mankind [illegible] political economy?

For years the opponents of protection to home industry have [illegible] vehemently asserting that our present tariff secures inordinate profits to the makers of iron and wares fabrics and implements in this country

To which we respond primarily, 'If such be the fact, those industries are as free to you as to any If there be $5 per ton profit on smelting iron why under the sun don't you melt [illegible] What hinders? You have capital, [illegible] acres of ore, coal, and [illegible] them into pig iron? As the Yankee inquired respecting Niagara—What's to hinder Can any one conjure up a reason why you Free Traders don't make iron, both and wares if there be more profit in these pursuits than in others?

Here [illegible] are Messrs C. Vanderbilt and [illegible] Stewart—men of vast business [illegible] ample wealth Let either of them say [illegible] want to embark in iron making [illegible] 000,000, and solicit subscriptions [illegible] 000 from others, so that the [illegible] may be done on the largest scale and with the greatest possible economy.' who does not [illegible] that the sum would be eagerly [illegible] up on the strength of the public confidence in the proposer's sagacity and ability? [illegible] choose to invest their means in other undertakings is none of our business [illegible] knows that we speak truth when [illegible] that they so invest their money [illegible] believe it will pay them better than iron making And they know.

[illegible] want to induce men to make iron, [illegible] wares, in this country, to the extent of the home demand for them To this [illegible] by protection, as affording inducements to such investment which would [illegible] under Free Trade

— Then your object is to enrich those [illegible] embark in these pursuits?"

— No, Sir not at all! Our object is totally different—to develop all the resources and capacities of our country—to diversify employments and call forth abilities and energies which would otherwise lie dormant We desire more skill, more invention, more production, But, though others may expect Messrs Vanderbilt Stewart and their class, to invest millions in iron making with no hope of profit, but under the influence of patriotic impulses solely, we are not sure that such motives would prove controlling Hence we endeavor to render it probable that they could make money by such investment That is no part of our object it may very reasonably and properly be theirs

We insist, therefore, that Washington, Hamilton, Jefferson, Madison, and their compeers, who laid the foundations of our protective policy, were impelled by the highest and purest motives They sought "the greatest good of the greatest number," and they believed the way to that end lay through protection That they were emphatically right, we have not a shadow of doubt, others think differently, and have a perfect right to their opinion But he who charges that it was their intention to enrich by protection the few at the expense of the many, is a wanton libeler He cannot know that their purpose was thus sordid and despicable, and all who revere their memory know that it was not—could not have been You might as well charge that Washington hung Andre under the influence of jealousy and envy of the Major's military fame
